The Pantheon Saloon is the depot for the celebrated Enterpriser, where it can always be found cool and fresh on tap. We do not deal in "Fredericksburg Beer" as the morning Paper through some mistake has advertised. Call at the Pantheon for re-freshing drink.

JIM DODD, Proprietor.

Talk about braying asses. The town is full of them. McBrayer's whiskey is only to be found at the Empire Saloon. And when it's found it stays.

En. Regna of the Empire Saloon has made a new deal which will touch the hearts, or at least the palates of many a thirsty wanderer. He keeps "half-and-half" on draught and serves a most delicious and cool beverage, far superior to "plain" beer.

LOCAL NOTES.

The Mioweta is due.

There was a runaway on Bere-tania street this morning.

The Ke Au Hou arrived this morning from San Francisco.

A matinee is going on this afternoon and is largely attended.

The A.U.P. have been rubbing the fat back of Popcorn with a resolution.

"Golden Giant" is the favorite play of George Osborn, an actor well known in this city.

Al. Hallett made as worldly a villain of Capt. Fanshaw, not omitting suave gentility as one could wish.

The Hyacinth is supposed to leave Honolulu next Tuesday and the harbor will again be without a man-of-war.

Extensive preparations are being made for a grand presentation of "Cinderella" including a beautiful transformation.

There are five strong acting parts in "Golden Giant" which well afford Dailey's Company great opportunities.

The School street bridge is now being repaired. Mr. Rowell has got to his senses at last. Where is King street bridge?

The Star stockholders meet tomorrow night at the Chamber of Commerce. A new policy for the great paper will probably be outlined.

Messrs. Samuel Parker and F. M. Hatch left for Maunawili early this morning. The distinguished diplomats will return next Friday.

The Advertiser gives on its last page a very "fishy" explanation of a watch stealing case referred to by an eye-witness in yesterday's HONOLULU.

Mr. H. Klemme has not yet decided to ask the Supreme Court to state if III means hundred and eleven or three! He ought to know what the answer will be.

There are few of Godfrey's electoral directories left and purchasers will find them highly interesting to everybody who wants to learn Hawaiian politics.

The Theosophists were "higher self" last night. It was a good lecture and should have been listened to by the Advertiser editor who is some what inclined that way.

The new editor of the Advertiser, will probably not arrive on the Australia and Mr. Armstrong will gain another week in which to tell Almanac stories of a very ancient date.

Revs. Mackintosh and Bush took in Saints and Sinners last night. S. F. Bishop is still bemoaning the loss of his horse's tail and couldn't appear. The play went on all the same.

A Reacon looking very much like P. C. J. appeared on the stage last night. It was always believed that the super-virtuous gentleman was stage-struck, but it was hardly supposed that he would choose the role of a snorer.

The postmaster-general who is always anxious to improve the postal facilities for the public, has arranged for a window to be devoted solely for she-males. None of the bad men can call there. Out always was a ladies man.

The hoodlums in the gallery of the Opera House should be checked. Last night some very offensive and very loud remarks were yelled out by the coming generation. The "sinner" is known and a repetition will furnish a practical demonstration of "how to become a saint."

CONGRATULATIONS.

THE I. I. S. N. CO. RECEIVES A VALUABLE ADDITION.

The Ke Au Hou.

When sleeping Honolulu was disturbed this morning by a steamer whistle, the general expression of those who woke up was "another Inter Island steamer." And it was! But this time, it was not one of Honolulu's old friends that shrieked out a notice of arrival. It was the "Ke Au Hou."

This is the new boat built by the enterprising I. I. S. N. Co. at Port Blak and brought to port by Capt. Godfrey.

The little steamer arrived about 4 o'clock this morning, only 9 days and 19 hours out. She is not as big as the Iwalani, but several sizes larger than the "late" Bishop. It is one of the hand-some boats yet brought into port and the owners are justified in feeling proud of the new addition to their fleet.

The vessel is mainly intended for freight, but she can boast of nice accommodations for the passengers. Two large state rooms and a fine dining room on deck show that the company does not desire passengers to consider a journey in the Ke Au Hou a stage of misery.

Everything on board the steamer is in a first class order.

She was loaded with freight, mostly consigned to the I. I. S. N. Co.

Captain Godfrey, who speeded the new boat down in such a swift time looked healthier than ever and stated that the trip has rejuvenated him. Mr. John Ena called early this morning and figured how much dividends he might be able to declare after the new boat gets travelling. Captain Campbell looked happy and will receive the little steamer as a special pet.

The community who has accepted "the new era" is unanimous in expressing the very best wishes for the prosperity of the Ke Au Hou.

KAMEHAMEHA GIRLS SCHOOL.

The first term of Kamehameha Girls School will open Monday November 12th. Applications for admission may be addressed to Miss Pope either at Kamehameha Manual or Miss Pope, will be in the Hawaiian Kindergarten Room, Queen Emma Hall, Saturday morning from 9-12 where she will be pleased to meet applicants. The tuition is fifty dollars ($50.) a year. No applicants received under 12 years of age. Oct. 11-1m.

LADIES' COLUMN.

We have a counter arranged this week devoted to WHITE COTTON DRESS GOODS, every piece of which we expect to sell before the week is out. They do not come under the head of Quick Sales and Small Profits, they will be sold at just what they cost us, not one cent more or one cent less. We want the rooms for more goods coming, we have made great purchases for the fall and winter trade. So from time to time different lines of goods will be pushed just as these White Cotton Dress Goods are at ACTUAL COST PRICE. And speaking about Quick Sales and Small Profits, as a fair sample of the difference it has made in prices generally we just mention LADIES' BLACK STOCKINGS. Those that we have always sold for $3 per dozen, we are now selling for $2.25 per dozen, while those that were formerly $5 per dozen are now only $4 per dozen. The same thing applies to MEN'S SOCKS. The $3 per dozen ones are now $2.25. We simply mention these few things, because they show a fair proportion of the discount made throughout the entire stock.

Do not forget to save your checks, you may be the one we send to the Volcano.

We said some time ago that Madame Pele would break out again, and she has done it. By the time you are ready to go, we expect she will talk of nothing else but Quick Sales and Small Profits at BEDS of WOVEN WIRE!

The Luxury OF THE 19th Century

A Mysterious Tale.

Did anybody ever hear how the banana first was grown. How the milk got in the coconut; when mango seed was sown; From whence the natives came to people this fair land, And when they died, where they all went, the happy dusky band?

These facts are all mysterious, and no solution get. And there's other mysteries quite as deep which are not so fathomed yet. Who was it ran the opium ring, got in the liquor tree, How was it Customs men were blind, detectives could not see?

Whose going to be the Tammany King of this most glorious town, Who'll start the Show, to whom shall we all plank the "needful" down? Who will be Boss, and run the firm, who will the Buckley be, To do it on the Frisco plan of the Great Republic free?

One thing we know that BAILEY'S BEDS are made of WOVEN WIRE, They give us comfort, peace and rest, and all that we desire. He takes no part in politics, but does the best he can, To please his friends, and show that he's the WOVEN WIRE MAN!

HIRES ROOT BEER

HIRES ROOT BEER

Root BEER

The most APPETIZING and WHOLESOME TEMPERANCE DRINK in the world. TRY IT. You take it as a tonic and get pleasure. C. E. HIRES, PHILADELPHIA

Morning, Noon, Night

Good all the time. It removes the languor of morning, sustains the energies at noon, lifts the weariness of night—HIRES ROOT BEER—delicious, sparkling, appetizing. Good as a luxury, good as a tonic.

It is beyond all dispute a wonderful health-giving drink, and it is very easy for any one to understand why this is so. The root, herbs, barks and berries, from which HIRES ROOT BEER is skillfully made, are the identical things from which physicians get their most helpful remedies. For instance: Do you believe that sarsaparilla is a valuable remedy? Well HIRES ROOT BEER contains more sarsaparilla than many sarsaparillas. The same is true as to other ingredients.

It is doing more to advance practical temperance than many people realize. It is used and recommended by the most cautious and conservative temperance people. The most scrupulous abstainer can enjoy HIRES ROOT BEER himself, and recommend it to others as an agreeable and healthful substitute for the strong drink which he opposes.

It is a homemade and homelike beverage. It is very easily prepared, and if the plain directions are followed, it will always be good. Every member of the family, from the baby to the grandfather, can enjoy HIRES ROOT BEER, and every one of them will have better health for each swallow they take. It improves the appetite, purifies the blood, and tones the whole system. Children especially delight in HIRES ROOT BEER. Its preparation interests them, and its use does them good. In thousands of homes, "HIRES ROOT BEER that mother made," will be among the happiest recollections of childhood.

BEWARE! Do not confound it with other Rootbeer preparations, as it is entirely unlike anything else of the kind. Beware of extracts advertised for making Rootbeer, as they are composed chiefly of coloring matter and oils to give them flavor, which excite the nerves and cause nausea.

Hires Improved Rootbeer packages makes really the most harmless of our fashionable drinks, yet nourishing and strengthening the blood. It cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develop in kidney and urinary diseases, and in fact, in any case that arises from an impure state of the blood.

Hires Improved Rootbeer is offered to the public with full confidence of its merits. It contains no poisonous or injurious properties whatever, and an infant may take it with perfect safety.
